

Returning New Yorkers Most Interested in the Brides of the Autumn

Returning New Yorkers always seem to take greater interest in the autumn weddings than in those of any other season of the year. Whatever the reason may be, they are always certain to attend the autumn weddings with much more enthusiasm than they do the weddings at other times.

Mrs. George Peabody was married only last week, but it was warm enough to have the ceremony on the grounds of her parents' country home in South Orange. Mrs. Peabody was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howe Allen. She was Miss Grace Evelyn Howe Allen. Her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Peabody of this city.

Mrs. Gustav Touchard, who is still spending her honeymoon at Hot Springs, in Virginia, was Miss Holmes and married Mr. Touchard, who is well known as a tennis player, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jahish Holmes, on October 11 last. Mrs. Touchard was a bridesmaid for Lady Decies and is the third of Lady Decies's attendants to be married.

Mrs. James McCallum was Miss Violet Lockwood and was married on October 10 at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Lockwood, of

made up of lace worn by her grandmother on both sides of the family.

It was on the same day, October 10, that Miss Ruth Brandeis was married to Irving Stern, youngest son of Louis Stern of this city, at Sherry's. Mrs. Stern's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brandeis, formerly lived in Kansas City, but now have a city residence at 763 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. Frederic Arthur Bryan was a bride of the late summer and was Miss Frances Sayre, a daughter of Mrs. Lewis Hall Sayre, before her marriage at her mother's home in Graham Court.

Mrs. S. E. Wilhelm, who was also married late in the summer, had her wedding at the St. Regis.

Mrs. Henry Benedict Taylor was Miss Josephine Bulkley and was married by the Rev. Herbert Shipman at the annex of the Metropolitan Club last month. Mr. Taylor comes from Oakland, Cal. The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bulkley, who live at 787 Madison avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will live in Oakland.

IN SOCIETY.

The first big assemblage of fashionable New Yorkers for the season of 1911-12 will take place on Monday night, November 13, at the opening performance of "Aida" at the Metropolitan Opera House. Lord and Lady Decies are likely to be in box 12 with Lady Decies's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clews. Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor have box 7. Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Livingston Mills, who are now at Roslyn, L. I., and will soon be at East Eighty-fourth street, will probably be in the box of Mrs. Mills's stepfather, William E. Vanderbilt. Mrs. Ogden Goelet, who has box 1, has been on the other side for a number of months, but is expected back before that date. In either case, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goelet, will be in the box, and probably Mr. and Mrs. Craig Biddle, the latter a sister of Mrs. Goelet, who is now at Hot Springs, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Augustus D. Juilliard, who have box 2, may be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCallum. Mrs. Juilliard's niece, Mrs. William D. Sloan, who have box 17, are usually accompanied by members of their family. Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, who have box 18, are likely to have with them two of their elder daughters, the Misses Harriet Alexander and Janet Alexander. Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan have box 35, and will be accompanied by some of their family. Mr. and Mrs. Orme Wilson, who are soon to return from the other side, having been absent for some months, have box 3, and there is little doubt that their son Thornton Wilson, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, Jr., will be of their party.

In No. 16 Mr. and Mrs. James Speyer will have friends with them. Mrs. William Straight, then Miss Dorothy Whitney, used the Whitney box, No. 11, last winter. Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Lydig have box 32, and the son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lydig, have not yet returned from Europe, but start next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Townsend Burden have box 26 and will have with them their daughters, the Misses Evelyn Burden and Gwendolyn Burden, and the latter's fiancé, David Downs, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Frick, who are keeping their establishment on the North Shore open for the early autumn, have box 19 and are likely to have with them Childs Frick and Miss Helen Frick.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry and the Misses Angelica Gerry and Mabel Gerry, who are due to return from their brief European trip soon, will occupy their box, No. 23. Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont have box 4. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Iselin have box 15. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze have box 32 and the son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. De Lancey Kountze, may be their guests. Mr. and Mrs. George S. Bowdoin, who have box 27, have usually members of their family with them, and so do Mr. and Mrs. Ormond G. Smith in box 24. Mrs. Harry B. Hollins will have friends with her in box 21. Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Murray have box 26. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Haggins have box 34 and Mrs. Haggins may have her relative, Countess Festetics, as a guest. Just now Mr. and Mrs. Haggins are at their big stock farm in Kentucky.

As Lloyd S. Bryce has become a foreign Minister, his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sargent Crane, will probably represent the family in box 13. Mr. and Mrs. George Griswold Haven will have friends with them in box 21. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Pratt have box 33. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gambrell in box 29, will have her sister, Mrs. Girard Foster, with her and some friends. No. 19 will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, who may have with them Mr. and Mrs. W. Goudy Loew, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren have box 12. Walter S. Gurnee will have his box, No. 9, filled with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney have box 36. Mrs. Ogden Mills will be with her sister, Mrs. Cecelia Bettinck of London, may occupy the Mills box. Mr. and Mrs. C. Vanderbilt, Jr., and Mrs. French Vanderbilt will be with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Baylies, the latter having just returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Martin at Balmorhea, Scotland, also have a box. Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish have box 14 in the parterre with Mr. and Mrs. Baker, and Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Bliss have box 30. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel have box 31. Mr. and Mrs. Jules S. Bache have box 5, with the Lydigs. There will be some of the foreign guests in town especially for the Foreign Show who will be in evidence at the opera, and there will be a showing of the foreign diplomats from the capital.

Among the men likely to be in evidence are Robert Stark, George D. Provost, Nathan H. Lord, Edward P. York, Edward C. Moore, Jr., F. Joseph Vernon, Charles H. Shaw, Philip Van Ingen, David J. King, Charles F. Harman, George C. Graves, Benjamin T. Cable, Walter S. Johnston, Franz Lewisohn, Robert T. McKee, William H. Hollister, Eugene W. Durkee, John W. Curtiss, Melville D. Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Arietta H. Prentice to Stephen Willets Collins, to take place on Wednesday, November 15. Miss Prentice is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Packer Prentice of 9 West Sixteenth street and Mr. Collins is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Collins of 57 East Fifty-fifth street. His mother was Miss Sarah Willets. He is a member of the Union League, City, Apawamis Golf and other clubs.

One of the big church weddings, that of Miss Elizabeth Bryan Sloan to Monson Morris, an aide-de-camp of Gov. Dix, will take place on Wednesday, November 15, in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Fifth avenue and Tenth street. The bride's party was made up last week, and Mr. Morris's sister, Mrs. Nelson B. Burr, and Mrs. Francis P. Garvan will be matrons of honor and Miss Amy R. Sloan will attend her sister as maid of honor. The Misses Grace Benson Henry, Frances Dunn of Rochester and Marion Thompson of Syracuse will be bridesmaids. William P. Whitcomb will be Mr. Morris's best man, and Major Nelson B. Burr, Lieut. Frank Anderson Sloan, Eleventh Infantry, U. S. A., a brother of the bride, H. Rogers Winthrop, W. De Lancey Coutant, William P. Burden, Robert Livingston Gerry, Ernest Iselin, Edward Marvin, Andrew C. Gay of Wilmington and H. H. Armstrong of Armistead, Mon., will be ushers.

Taking a Mean Advantage. A Burr Oak man woke up the other night to find his wife going through his pants pocket, where he kept his money.

When he asked her what she was after she stammered and said she was "seeing on a button that had appeared in his missing."

And what did the mean old son of Adam do but get right out of bed and find two buttons on his coat, three on his vest and three on his underclothes that were just about ready to drop off, and all there and none the wiser! The woman saw him on the morning after the night before, and she was a loving little woman who would crawl out of bed on a cold night just to see that her husband's clothes were in good repair.
